Heavenly Error Provides Plot For New Drama

"Heaven Can Wait," the Footlight Theater's third play, will be presented Oct. 14 and 15, and again Oct. 21 and 22 at the municipal plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd.

The plunge will become a theater in the round for the two week end performances with a curtain time at 8:30 p.m. Ticket price have been set at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for youngsters under 18, according to Violet Boodman, publicity chairman for the group.

Harry Segal is the author of the witty fantasy in three acts. An up-and-coming prize fighter, Joe Pendleton, portrayed by Sonny Dembrinski, crashes an aircraft, and an over-enthusiastic heavenly messenger, played by Bob Lundy, sent out to collect souls, picks up Joe's by mistake.

This one-in-a-million error leads to complications of several sorts when it is discovered by Mr. Jordan, the head man, portrayed here by Clarence Lundy.

The action of the play revolves around the efforts of the messenger and the head man to straighten out the matter.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling DA 9-5338 or DA 9-3459.
